Milam Pioneer Plays His Violin at 80 Years of Age

The beauty and simplicity of life as it is lived in the rural sections away from the hurrying and scurrying crowds is exemplified in quiet scenes around the Joe Ferguson home just five miles south of Milano, which as does its occupants enjoy a rich and inspiring history.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson jointly celebrated their birthdays. Mr. Ferguson was 80 years old and Mrs. Ferguson was 69 years old.

The old farm near Milano was settled by D. Pugh Ferguson, early day Texas colonist who came to Texas during the Stephen F. Austin colonization period. He fought in the Texas war for independence and took part in the Battle of San Jacinto. He settled with his family on this little farm and there reared his family of children. Joe Ferguson was born in the old home in which he has lived through the years. His family of six children were all born and reared in this old home and all but one of his children still live in the state of Texas.

Mr. Ferguson has been an active farmer and has never entirely retired but still takes active part in the affairs on the farm. His hobby is his violin with which he has entertained his friends and neighbors through the years.

When he goes to town he drives an old Model-T Ford car. His life has been lived through a historic period in Milam county as well as Texas history and is unusual in that very few people can claim a residence record to equal his.

On Sunday, January 28, a surprise birthday dinner and shower was given at the Ferguson home, he and his wife sharing equally in the honors.

His children all of whom were present sent are Mrs. Cammie Morrison of Carnegie, Okla., Mrs. Elizabeth Oakes of Houston, Joe Ferguson of Houston, Mrs. Velvie Greathouse of Texas City, Lloyd Ferguson of Milano and Mrs. Verda Short of Waco.

He has 22 grand children and 8 great grand children, some of whom were in attendance. All of his grand children are native Texans now living in this state with the exception of Mrs. Guyneth Van Antwerp of Edmond, Okla.

The occasion on Sunday included a program of songs and music, a shower of gifts and congratulations of many friends. The birthday cake made and decorated by Mrs. A. L. Morrison of Carnegie, Okla., was decorated in pink, blue and white with candles.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Ferguson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ferguson and children, J. P. and Wanda Jean Ferguson; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morrison; Mrs. Elizabeth Oakes, Mrs. Velvie Greathouse, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rosky and children, Henry Charles and Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lewis and daughter, Leatrice Joy; Mr. and Mrs. Ike Shilburne and children, Joyce Emmett and I. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carroll and son, Guy; Mr. and Mrs. Imes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams and children Janet and Will; and Mrs. Sallie Robinson.

After the celebration was over Mr. Ferguson said that the celebration gave him the greatest thrill of his life, that it was a new deal for him, and he served notice on all present that he would be eighty one in six months, and he wanted the next birthday party to be about the same as this one. If so, he promised to announce himself as a candidate for President of the United States.

Bryan Youth Killed Instantly in Wreck Near Milano Fri. Night

Alfred P. Boswell, 21, of Bryan was killed instantly at 7 p. m. Friday when his car, a 1936 Chevrolet coach struck a truck about one-quarter mile east of Milano.

Bud Ashcraft of Rogers, driver of the truck, who was en route to Houston with a load of corn, was only slightly injured suffering from a bruised leg.

According to Deputy Clarence McCall who with Sheriff Max Kennedy was called to investigate the wreck, the Boswell car hit the bed of the truck crushing in the automobile motor and pinning Boswell in the wreckage, killing him instantly. The impact was so forceful the truck turned over and the car was shoved against an embankment on the side of the road. It was believed Boswell was blinded by lights of the truck and failed to drive far enough to the right when he met the truck.

Boswell was formerly a resident of Hearne. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ancil Boswell, two brothers and one sister.

J. FRANK DOBIE TO LECTURE FEBRUARY 23

J. Frank Dobie, author, lecturer and authority on Texas folklore, will be presented by the Cameron Lions Club and History Club at the Yoe High School auditorium at 7:30 o'clock on Friday night, February 23.

Guy Haynes, president of the Lions Club, was in Austin last week for a conference with Mr. Dobie regarding the coming lecture here on Feb. 23. Mr. Haynes will arrange a unique display of a collection of Mr. Dobie's writings in volume form in a number of down town show windows.

Mr. Dobie's latest book, "Apache Gold and Yaqui Silver" has created a nation wide interest in the mythical, as well as actual gold hunts in the mountains of New and Old Mexico.

His book, "Coronado's Children" is a similar work. Mr. Dobie has caught up and put into his books the most colorful era in Texas History. His lectures are a breath from Texas cattle ranges and mountains where stories of lost gold caches of the early Spaniards who came first to settle the great Southwest, still persist.

Mr. Dobie, member of the faculty of the University of Texas, is also editor of the magazine issued by the Texas Folklore Society.

MRS. J. Z. YOUNG DIES AT HOME WEDNESDAY

FUNERAL HELD LATE THURSDAY IN CAMERON

Mrs. J. Z. Young died suddenly at her home in Cameron at 2 a. m. Thursday.

Her sudden death was said to have been due to a cerebro hemorrhage. She had been in declining health for some time due to high blood pressure. Her death was not expected as she enjoyed a pleasant afternoon with friends Wednesday and had retired at nine o'clock Wednesday evening.

Shortly after Mrs. Young retired for the evening she told her son that she was not feeling well. A physician was summoned. Her condition became more critical and death came at 2 a. m.

Mrs. Young was the widow of the late Dr. J. Z. Young, widely known physician of Buckholts who died several years ago. The family moved to Cameron shortly after the death of Dr. Young.

Mrs. Young was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Looney, pioneer residents of Milam county and was reared at Branchville. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Cameron and also a member of the Eastern Star.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist church at 3 p. m. Thursday, February 1, 1940, with the pastor, Rev. V. M. Cloyd, conducting the services, assisted by Rev. M. A. Gary of Austin, who was pastor at Buckholts while Mrs. Young held membership there. Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery in Cameron with the Wright Funeral Home in Temple directing arrangements.

Mrs. Young is survived by four children as follows: Mrs. Leland Green, Jr., Major Young of Cameron, Robert Young of Kennedy and Ray Lyman Young of Cameron; one sister Mrs. Fred Smith of Calvert; two brothers, Hugh Looney of Bryan and Will Looney of Branchville.

CHURCHILL SAYS ALLIES TO TAKE OFFENSIVE AGAINST NAZI

England and France will take the offensive in the spring if the words of Winston Churchill, first sea lord of the British Admiralty, can be taken as an indication of what the allies plan to do to Nazi Germany.

Churchill in a speech Saturday morning in the House of Commons said England and France do not expect to remain on the defensive. "I hope the day is not far distant when Hitler will be wondering where we will hit him next," said the British sea lord.

Churchill was howled down when he had finished half his speech.

The demonstration was said to indicate the British temper and the beginning of a manifestation of distrust of British leadership. Observers believe the British are clamoring for action and Churchill's speech was in effect an effort to reassure the British public that the war aims of the allies can be relied upon.

Fear that wholesale bombings will shortly ensue led British officials to day to warn those civilians who have returned to London that it may be necessary shortly to force them to return again to the safety of the English countryside.

In Berlin Adolf Hitler who has been unusually silent, broke out with the blunt statement that if England and France bomb Germany he will give them a double dose. Observers indicated these rival statements may indicate resumption of war and the outbreak of the real blitzkrieg, or lightning war.

On the Finnish front Russia was faring badly as usual with the Red Command making a desperate effort to rescue some 40,000 men caught in a Finnish vice and facing annihilation. An official communication from the Finnish Command said Russia had made no advance and that all attacks had been thrown back with severe losses.

There was no immediate indication of final reaction over the abrogation of the trade treaty with Japan expiring on Friday at midnight.

BENNETT'S TEAM GROWING STRONGER

Drums along the athletic front in Cameron today were beating out a victory march and spirits were high as Cameron's basketball team coached by Punk Bennett, won over Belton in the Tiger gymnasium in Belton on Friday night.

The winning score, while not as impressive as enthusiasm indicates, the encouraging refrain was universal commendation of the stout defense of the Yoemen and the fundamentals of good play that figured in their victory over the Tigers. The score was 25 to 23.

The campus will resound to praise of the quintet for its victory over the Belton Tigers, achieving something on the court which the Yoemen have been unable to do on the gridiron within the history of conference play.

For the first time in reporting the basketball schedule, the Daily Herald presents a box score which gives details and statistics of the game showing the play of each Yoemen and their opponents.

The Yoemen were believed to be in better spirits and were hopeful of winning the county championship, in the tournament competition which opens next week in Rockdale while the rural tournament is to be staged in Cameron.

Nation's Screen Rage "Gone With the Wind" Will Be Shown Here

Stanley Swift of the Swift theatres, responding to a question asked by the Daily Herald Saturday in behalf of movie fans regarding a possible showing date for "Gone With the Wind," made the following statement:

"The Cameron Theatre is proud to announce that it has a contract with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer for "Gone With the Wind." However, at the present time we do not have a definite play date.

The distributors at this time will not accept a play date of less than seven days and we do not feel that our territory is large enough to play any picture a full week.

Rest assured that when Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer releases "Gone With the Wind" for less than seven day engagements, the Cameron Theatre will be among the first to exhibit this remarkable production in its full length of three hours and forty-one minutes."

All Europe had eyes on the conference which opens Friday by the Balkin Countries and there was no war anywhere except in Finland where the Finns have taken the counter offensive and are pushing the Reds back.

While most of the week has been consumed in debate on the Appropriation Bill for the support of the Post Office and Treasury Departments, this measure has occasioned very little interest or feeling as compared with two other matters that were sandwiched into the regular debate on the appropriation bill as "special orders." Consideration of the appropriation bill has not been completed, but it has gone far enough to show very plainly that there will be little disposition to increase any of the figures suggested by the committee, and the committee figures are quite a bit lower than in the past. In other words, it seems clear that the House, at least, is now determined to hold the expenses of government to the lowest possible figure. I am in hearty sympathy with this policy of economy and want to see our government keep the public debt within the present debt limit of 45 billion dollars. Ultimately, all of this money must be repaid or we will go broke trying to pay the interest. On the other hand, this interest can be much more easily paid if our people have a reasonable national income. I don't think we can have an adequate income without a reasonable farm income. I am convinced that all national income is, in the final analysis, dependent on farm income, and the statistics I have studied convince me that for every dollar of farm income the nation produces it will have seven dollars of national income. Therefore, if we are to expect a national income large enough to enable our people to pay the taxes necessary to support our present national debt and ordinary governmental expenses, we must increase rather than decrease farm income. This seems to be just as vital to the welfare of the cities as to the country, but as I have so often pointed out, lots of the Northern Congressmen don't see it this way, and I realize that we will have lots of difficulty in getting a reasonable sum for soil conservation and parity payments past the House. With a large percentage of it's members from Agricultural States, the Senate is more likely to look favorably on appropriations for farm aid. The Agricultural Appropriation Bill will likely be before the House next week, and I know that we will be faced with a fight that is vital to the welfare of our people. I shall support an appropriation large enough to care for both the parity and the soil conservation payments.

Day before yesterday, we had a fight over a bill which the President had vetoed and returned to Congress. This bill would have paid to the State of Ohio out of the Federal Treasury all of the sums that would have been paid by Federal Government in October, 1938 for Social Security aid had the State of Ohio then been complying with Federal requirements. As a matter of fact, Ohio had refused to comply with Federal regulations and after the Social Security Board notified them that it was going to cut off all payments to the State if it did not comply, the State refused to appear at the hearing which the Social Security Board set. The Board then cut off payments to Ohio. For one month Ohio did not receive any Federal money. They have, however, corrected their irregularities and have received Federal payments ever since. The money we were asked to appropriate was not to pay the old or the needy of Ohio, but the State government for money that it could have had but did not get because of its failure to comply with Federal requirements. As I see it, this case is another good example of the need for a 100 per cent Federal paid and controlled old age assistance plan as I am urging. Only in that way can we expect to avoid repetitions of this sort of thing in other States.

Of course, the Ohio Representative all urged passage of the bill over the President's veto because they naturally wanted to help their own State. The Republicans all joined with the Ohio delegation in an effort to embarrass the Democratic Administration. With the help of some Democrats who wanted to vindicate the committee that had previously recommended this payment, they got 171 votes, but not enough to pass the bill. I voted against the bill and to uphold the President and the Administration. Probably the most important action of the week was the action of the House in authorizing the extension of the Dies Committee for another year. This committee has, as I am sure you know, focused attention on the un-American activities of a number of groups and "isms." It has gone a long way toward checking some of the most dangerous developments that have threatened our American form of government and way of life. It has shown that we must protect America at home as well as from abroad. An overwhelming majority of the House has always supported its work, but a small group has been very active and very bitter in trying to destroy the committee and its work. I realize that neither this or any other committee can alone do all the work that needs to be done in this field. But I believe that the committee has been of great value and has set in motion public sentiment that will go a long way toward fostering real Americanism. I believe that the continuation of the committee will serve a valuable purpose in preventing the development of un-American groups and activities. I, therefore voted for the continuation of the committee.

With best wishes.

Miss Lucille Bomar of Ben Arnold was in Cameron Saturday.

Herman Bomar and Boyd Chamberlain were Taylor visitors Thursday evening.

AMERICANS TOLD TO LEAVE SWITZERLAND

Japan, angered over the ending of the trade treaty with the United States on Friday, and jointly charging Great Britain with co-operation with the United States, Friday opened fire on a British ship in the Pacific.

Whether this action on the part of the Japanese navy was in retaliation over the incident this week when a British destroyer took 21 German nationals off a Japanese liner, could not be ascertained, but indications were that Japan will now drive all nationals other than Japanese out of China and make inoperative all foreign commercial interests in the far east.

It was believed that the action of the United States in terminating the trade treaty with Japan is certain to involve this country in a foreign war. The British are believed to be well pleased with American blunders in the foreign diplomatic field. Japan is angered over the termination of the treaty and will now proceed to make conditions unbearable for Americans and American interests in China. Co-operation of Russia, Japan, Italy and Germany will operate against American interests as well as British interests all over the world.

American citizens were warned to leave Switzerland today by the government because of major offensive by the German army on the western front in April is expected. Under those conditions it would be impossible to evacuate American nationals and therefore the government of Switzerland has requested all Americans to leave the country.

The Finns continued to wipe out units of the Russian army and the Reds had failed to rescue another contingent of troops said to be trapped and facing immediate annihilation.

Amos Marek Loses Cash and Gold Watch

The Midget Daily considerably under-estimated the loot taken by a burglar from Amos Marek on Tuesday morning.

In the published story of the burglary on Tuesday afternoon the Daily said the thief took $6.50 and a gold chain and watch. The story should have read gold chain and watch. Mr. Marek values his watch very highly and his friends regret to know of his loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burke spent a pleasant week end at home as there son Ray Burke, Jr., was home from Waco.

FINNS SHOOT DOWN 17 BOMBING PLANES

Russian reinforcements were reported today to have arrived on all fronts in Finland, and although the Finns continued their phenomenal successes against the invaders, it was believed that for the first time in the war, Russia will make a serious attempt to over come the little country.

On Monday 17 Russian bombing planes were shot down by the Finns. The Russians had begun to bomb civilian populations and on one front 40 were slain and a number of Finnish homes were burned.

Since the last official estimate on the number of Red losses in the Finnish War, it was revealed Tuesday that the Red army has suffered more than 200,000 casualties. This estimate increased the number by 50,000 over the official estimate of Saturday.

On the coast of England, the Shetland Islands and the North Sea generally the Germans continued their air raids on British Commerce. One German bombing plane was shot down by the British.

The most severe blizzard since the Duke of Wellington won the battle of Waterloo, against Napoleon, has struck the British Isles paralyzing traffic and rendering difficult all war operations.

It seems that Cameron had quite a number of her college students home for the week end. Among them were: Rudy Michalka and Bob H. Nabours of A & M College; Trent Nabours of Sam Houston College; Norris Clarke and Billy Batte Bryan of Baylor University; Sam Tyson of Southwestern University, Georgetown and Clara Baskin of Texas University, Austin.

The Home Economics class of Yoe High gave a leap year party Friday night at the high school gymnasium. For entertainment they played games and near the end of the evening were served hot chocolate and sandwiches. The party began with the game, Black Magic.

New Funeral Home To Open in City

Cameron has a new undertaking firm to be known as the Marek-Burns Funeral Home.

The home, first to be located in the residential section of the city, will occupy the residence property located on highway 77 and known as the Pope Sapp residence.

W. N. (Bill) Burns now with the Central Freight Lines in Cameron and Billie Marek formerly with the Coleman Funeral Home are associated in this new enterprise.

The Marek-Burns partnership brings together as business associates two of Cameron's most widely known and highly esteemed young businessmen.

Commenting to the Daily Herald Saturday both expressed their deep appreciation for the encouragement that has come to them since it became known they were to establish a funeral home.

Mr. Burns will shortly sever his connection with Central Freight Lines while, Mr. Marek has already resigned his place with Coleman Funeral Home.

A portion of the equipment, a modern Oldsmobile coach, has already arrived in the city.

The Marek-Burns Funeral Home will operate a burial association.

Cameron Band Gives Radio Program Tues.

Cameron's celebrated Yoe High School Band gave a thirty minute concert over radio station KTEM in Temple Tuesday morning from 10:30 to 11. The music featured popular numbers as well as classical, and telegrams of congratulations were dispatched from Cameron.

Director Francis Cox and 65 members of the band with a number of interested citizens went to Temple for the broadcast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sykes of Cameron were called to Corpus Christi Thursday to the bedside of a sick brother of Mr. Sykes. They spent Thursday night in Austin where they visited a son and went on to Corpus Friday. News had not been received here of how critically ill Mr. Sykes is.

BLIZZARD RELENTS AS TEMPERATURES RISE

Texas was slowly emerging today from the grip of icy weather that for more than ten days has brought about sub-freezing temperatures and brought new record lows to sections where cold is little known.

Cameron, shivering for more than a week with the temperatures ranging from 18 to 6 above, may get some relief after Friday night.

There was hope that warmer weather could reach the city by Saturday. The broadcast for snow or rain was well intended but climatic conditions said otherwise and instead the sun broke through to spill a little warmth into a frozen world shortly afternoon. Cold will continue to night but Saturday will see warmer weather.

Generally the freeze had a bad effect on business. Merchants were expecting a better run tomorrow.

The most serious problems yet to face is lack of moisture. Soon farming time will come and unless rain reaches the fields in time there is little hope for successful growing of grains and other feed crops in early spring.

Cameron plumbers were still working overtime to catch up with business caused by the freeze.

MRS. J. T. THWEATT (contributed)

Maysfield Community was profoundly shocked and saddened early on the morning of January 25, by the sudden death of Mrs. John Thomas (Emma Vaughn) Thweatt. She had been in failing health for several years, but her condition had not been appreciably worse, than usual, until 3:30 o'clock on the morning of her death. Before medical aid could be summoned she had responded to her final call from this life.

The news of Mrs. Thweatt's passing quickly spread throughout the state, and, despite the inclement weather soon hundreds of friends and relatives were gathering at the Thweatt home to pay their last tribute to the memory of this gracious and lovable personality.

At ten o'clock on the morning of the twenty-sixth, a beautiful and touching service was conducted at the family residence by Rev. Henry M. Bailey, pastor of the Maysfield Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Aln Reed, pastor of Lexington Methodist Church. After the funeral service, interment was made at Pebble Grove Cemetery, a profusion of beautiful floral offerings spoke eloquently of the universal esteem in which Mrs. Thweatt was held.

Mrs. Thweatt was born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, January 8, 1869, the daughter of John Robin and Lucinda Vaughn. The family came to Texas while she was a mere infant and established a home in the Maysfield Community where she has continued to live through the greater part of her life. She united with the Methodist Church at an early age and remained a devoted member of that institution to the day of her death. Her marriage to John Thomas Thweatt took place December 23, 1888. Her husband survives her, as do eight of the nine children who were born from their union. The children surviving are: John, William, Bennett, Gilford, Herbert and Vaughn Thweatt, Mrs. Roy Newton and Mrs. Ralph Massengale all of Maysfield. Preceding Mrs. Thweatt in death by a little more than two years was the second son, Harmon, who died as a result of injuries received while serving over seas during the World War. The keen anguish felt at the loss of this beloved son shadowed the remainder of Mrs. Thweatt's life, but she met sorrow with unflinching courage, and it may truly be said of her that "with unfaltering trust she approached the grave as one who wraps the drapery of her couch around her and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Her life was an open book, a beautiful volume filled to overflowing with deeds of sacrifice, with acts of unselfish devotion, with daily ministrations to those in need. Every one whose life was touched by hers found his heart enriched by the association, his faith in mankind strengthened and renewed. As long as her health would permit, wherever sorrow or affliction were found, there she might be seen, doing everything in her power to alleviate suffering and to comfort the bereaved. After her health made her a shut-in, she never allowed her cheerfulness to falter, her sweet smiles to fade, or her good words to cease. No longer able to go in person on errands of mercy, she sent gifts and with them loving notes. No one in trouble ever failed to meet a ready response in Mrs. Thweatt; be he the highest or the lowest, it made no difference, her tender heart was touched by his need, her loving hands were busy in an effort to relieve his distress.

In the death of Mrs. Thweatt this community has sustained a loss which is irreparable, her family has lost a wife and mother whose devotion and loyalty will live in the hearts of her loved ones as long as those hearts shall beat, her friends have lost one on whom they could ever depend for love and wise counsel, and for that abiding faith without which friendship can never reach its ultimate perfection.

The poet reminds us of "That best part of a good man's life, His little, nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and of love."

Those closest to Mrs. Thweatt know that of such little acts her life was full. Kindnesses were rendered that were unknown to any save the recipient, but which brought joy to anxious hearts. Truly, the life of a good woman is a glorious thing, and the inspiring influence of Mrs. John Thomas Thweatt will abide forever and forever.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Love" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 4.

The Golden Text is: "The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us" (Romans 5:5.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times, but, Until seventy times seven" (Matthew 18:21, 22.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Every trial of our faith in God makes us stronger. The more difficult seems the material condition to be overcome by Spirit, the stronger should be our faith and the purer our love" (page 410.)

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dakel gave a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Busker of Lott who celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary. A lovely time was had by the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dakel, William Shenker and Robt. Lee Dakel.

Hitler Speaks to The German Reich

Adolf Hitler who 7 years ago came into power as Chancellor of Germany went on the air at 1 p. m. Central Standard Time Tuesday to speak to the people of the Reich and to further emphasize the war aims of national socialism.

The German Chancellor is 51 years old. Only 15 years ago, he was in a German prison for an unsuccessful attempt to overthrow the government of the late President Hindenburg. He later was made Chancellor by Hindenburg and during his 7 years reign as German dictator has made Germany a world power from the ashes of defeat in 1918.

Briefly stated the aim of Adolf Hitler is to stamp out every vestige of thought and opinions among the German people that does not coincide with national socialism. When this has been accomplished, according to Hitler, Germany will be secure for a thousand years.

RUSSIAN RETREAT IS UTTER ROUT MONDAY

Fifteen-thousand Russian soldiers were slain in the six day battle on the Mannerheim line which ended Sunday with utter rout of the Red army.

In a round-up of the Finnish situa-tion, authoritative source said that the Red army has suffered 150,000 casu-alties since the war began. It was believed that most of these were slain or died of exposure.

The war in Finland was at a stand-still Monday but Russia was bring-ing up thousands of fresh troops in a renewed effort to break the Finnish defenses along the Mannerheim.

For the first time in the war Fin-nish heavy artillery was bombarding supply lines of the Soviet Army pre-venting concentration of troops and supplies.

It was revealed for the first time that American aviators have joined the Finnish air force. More than 10,000 Swedish soldiers are fighting for Finland. French and Italian soldiers as well as Italian bombing planes are active in the war against Russia.

The press, most modern printing unit of its kind in the world, has 17 variable speeds and is automatic, requires no printer to feed and will give Cameron the best printing equipment in central Texas.

Each day The Midget will be printed on its own press, a dream cherished by its publishers since the founding last June.

The amount of money to be paid in these checks cannot be estimated as checks already received may represent a big percentage of the sum total.

HAROLD PRESSLEY TAKES LEADING PART IN ALL ACTIVITIES AT UNIVERSITY

High school valedictorians at the University of Texas show little disposition to become college "grinds," a survey made at the institution recently shows.

Required to maintain a high scholastic standing to hold the scholarships awarded them by University Regents, the ninety-six freshman valedictorians at the University must study, of course, but they cannot qualify as "bookworms," for part-time employment, extra-curricular activities, and fun are included in their schedules.

Harold B. Pressley, freshman from Cameron, is taking a pre-law course at the University. He finds time to be active in the program of the University Presbyterian Church and is interested in sports of all kinds, but only as a spectator.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Pressley of Cameron, he was graduated from Yoe High School in June 1939, as valedictorian of his class.

TEACHERS MEET HERE MONDAY NIGHT

The Milam County Teachers' Association met in the Yoe High School Auditorium on Monday night, Jan. 29. A large number of the teachers of the county were present. A social half hour was held from 7 until 7:30 p. m. which allowed the teachers to visit and committees to hold their meetings. Music was furnished by the Yoe High School Swing Band.

The Association was called to order by W. C. Wiese, Principal of the Yoe High School. Mr. Wiese, who is President of the Teachers' Association this year, expressed the hope for a pleasant year for the teachers of the County and a progressive year for the Association.

The program was under the direction of Miss Patsy McGregor. The special numbers given on the program and the speaker were well received. Mrs. Audrey Kelly played two piano numbers; "Dark Eyes" a Russian Folk Song and "Juggler" by Ernest Tock. Billy Triggs sang, "Water Boy" and "Oh, Dry those Tears." Miss Elizabeth McGee read, "No Bigger than a Man's Hand" by Edna St. Vincent Milley.

C. M. Hicks introduced Tolbert Patterson, Deputy State Supervisor, who was the speaker for the evening. Mr. Patterson brought an inspirational talk in which he said that teachers' meetings gave inspiration to those who attended. This inspiration which comes from association with others, is very essential for teachers. A teacher today has everything, within his or her own profession, to be optimistic about. The course of study, now offered in our large and small schools has been modernized to include those broader samplings of courses which fit the child for life as well as the more classical courses, which the course of study has always maintained.

Mr. Patterson continued by discussing the topic of "Successful Living versus Successful Teaching." He pointed out that the average parent feels that their child knows too little about Democracy. He charged the teachers to instill within the child a real love for his country and Democracy. Mr. Patterson concluded his remarks by saying that those characteristics which are necessary for "Successful Living and Successful Teaching," are Adaptability, Stickability and Amiability.

W. C. Wiese, through the fact that he is President of the Milam County Teachers' Association, will be the County Teachers' delegate to the State Convention, which meets in Ft.

Miss Marie Ford Leaves The Herald; Goes to School

Miss Marie Ford, member of the editorial staff of the Cameron Herald, daily and weekly, will leave the city Sunday for Denton where she will enter the College of Industrial Arts.

The publishers regret the loss of so valuable a staff member and yield to best wishes for a successful college career. Miss Ford has devoted most of her time to the Daily Midget and to the business office of the Herald.

She came to the Herald staff from her home at Yarellton three years ago. The publishers were first impressed with her writing talent when she contributed a number of articles touching upon various subjects.

She became a member of the staff and was assigned to duty. Her work led her to participate in the more important details of reporting and writing for the Herald readers the great volume of news matter carried by these newspapers. Miss Ford was attracting considerable attention because of her newspaper work and in making her decision to go to school sacrificed, for the time being, a brilliant career as a writer.

The publishers feel that the popularity of the Midget Daily as well as the Herald is due largely to her work.

A real trooper has left the profession and no greater tribute could be paid to a newspaper writer than to say "she got the story and wrote it well."

By reason of her splendid personality, she made many friends and leaves a lonesome place against the skyline along the Daily Route and Line of Duty known to every member of the publishing profession.

Miss Mary O'Neill has accepted the position vacated by Miss Ford and has taken up the duties of associate editor. The publishers believe that while they have lost a valued employee they have found another whose possibilities are high for the newspaper profession.
